MISSIONARY PROJECT TOLD ABOUT AT GUILD

Members of the Women's Community Guild of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church were told about the Delmo project, sponsored by the American Board Of Missions, at the meeting Tuesday afternoon in the vestry of the church. Colored films were shown by the Rev. Frederic E. Reynard and narrator was Mrs. George C. Bradley, Jr. world friendship chairman. The Delmo project is one of the projects to be helped this year by the Guild. It is a community of nine villages on the delta of the Missouri River for evicted sharecroppers.

At the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. George D. Heath, Jr., Mrs. Edwin L. Perkins announced that sewing meetings will held each Tuesday this month at her home on North Street in preparation for the Christmas Fair November 29th.

Reports were also given by Mrs. Albert D. Furnans, dancing school; Mrs. Frederic E. Reynard, Adventures in Reading project; Mrs. Albert N. Heuberger, harvest supper; Mrs. Marshall Ross, kitchen committee and Mrs. Reynard, home department.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Anthony J. Pelson and Mrs. Anthony J. Sylvia. Mrs. Harry G. Erhard, hostess, was assisted by Mrs. Chester Heuberger, Mrs. Osborn Nash and Mrs. Arthur Tiffany.

HOBO PARTY

A Hobo Party will be held at the Harbor Beach Lodge Veteran's Day, November 11th. Everyone is invited and are asked to dress in Glad Rags or just plain rags. You are promised a wonderful time.

VETERANS' DAY

This week we honor men who gave so much in the defense of the United States. Thousands of men still remain in hospitals from wars which we have fought. Some will be in these hospitals for the rest of their lives. Our country owes more to these men, and to those that died, than can ever be repaid. There ought to be a day each week set aside to honor them instead of a day each year. We can only hope that the world will soon find some way by reason and diplomacy to prevent the sacrifice of the best of its young men. How difficult it must be for these men to feel that their broken lives have accomplished something lasting and good. We can help by showing that we haven't forgotten them and by continuing to keep this country so strong that a war will be annihilation for any future aggressor. The free world owes its continuance to the strength of the United States and the strength of the United States lies in its youth and in its Veterans. Those men in our hospitals built our country into the greatest power in the world by their sacrifice. How fortunate for the world that this power will be used in defense of all free men.

DESSERT CARD PARTY PLANNED

The Ways and Means Committee of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club have planned a dessert-card party Tuesday, November 15th at 1:30 at Meiling's. Mrs. Ernest Furnans, chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. Richard Gregg, Mrs. Kenneth Wiggin, Mrs. Herbert D. Cray, Jr., Mrs. Ross Humphreys, Mrs. Marshall Sawyer, Mrs. Manuel Sylvia, Mrs. Manuel Correia and Mrs. William Fuller.

ADVERTISING; THE BUSINESSMAN'S BEST INVESTMENT

By 1958 we will have real competition. By that time it is expected that a 250 acre, 50 to 60 store big city shopping centre within 40 minutes of your place of business will be in full operation.

It is a challenge to each operator of a business here. Only one answer is logical to meet this competition. The merchandise you stock is as good or better at prices just as attractive as anybodys.

Proper thought and planning of your advertising to tell people so and when responded to by your potential customers, fair practices and proof of efficient operation can at once, and firmly by 1958, assure you your customer will come to you and not stray away.

Your advertising dollar is an investment in security. A "barker" inevitably attracts attention, and if he can back up his claims does business. Shoppers go where they are convinced there are the best values. Get your full customer and register count with consistent advertising and don't wait for customers, bring them to you.

CHRISTMAS DECORATION AND LIGHTING

The Improvement Association of Mattapoisett will offer prizes again this year to individual home owner, businesses and organizations for the best Christmas displays. Last year many beautiful displays and lighting effects brightened the town during the Christmas season. The Improvement Association hopes that the interest shown last year by the townspeople will grow year by year and that many new displays will appear to make the town a showplace filled with the bright Christmas spirit. The season will soon be upon us so why not plan now to make a family project out of your display and start right away on it. It does not have to be an elaborate display. For example you may recall the stained glass window done by Mrs. George Eldridge last year. The stained glass effect was accomplished with colored paper with black paper or tape to make the leaded divisions. This window was a beautiful and inspirational Christmas card for all passersby with the light shining through it. This is something even the children can do and enjoy. The many outside displays last year were very attractive and there again the effect can be beautiful without being elaborate and expensive. If everyone will do something, however simple, the overall effect will bring visitors from all around to see and enjoy our town spirit.

Plans are underway for a town display but they are not definite as yet. But there will be an attractive town lighting display and it is hoped to have Christmas carols sung at the display by one or more of the town organizations.

HALLOWE'EN PARADE FOLLOWED BY PARTIES

Witches, pirates, bunnies, ghosts, cats, piggies, clowns, etc. paraded the streets of Mattapoisett Hallowe'en night led by drummers, Joseph Mello of New Bedford, Joseph Mello of Fairhaven and Albert Morgado of Mattapoisett. The auxiliary police escorted the marchers holding red fire flares.

Four parties for different ages were held following the parade.

At the Congregational Church vestry preschool and first graders were entertained at a party supervised by Mrs. Denman Morgan, assisted by Mrs. George Heath, Jr., Mrs. Allen Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Souza, Jr., Mrs. Frederic E. Reynard, Mrs. Alan Perkins, Mrs. John Denham, Jr., Mrs. Ross Hopkins and Mrs. Ralph McAdams. Julia Fuller received a prize for the prettiest costume. She was dressed in pink and green as a ballerina. Dressed as a Chinaman, Alan Perkins received the prize for the most original and the prize for the funniest went to Betsy Wood, a devil. Judges were Mrs. Horace Darrah, Mrs. Robert Seeley, George White and Lloyd Haskell.

Second and third graders were entertained at St. Anthony Church by Miss Anna DeCosta, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Morse, Mrs. Harry Kremp, Mrs. Mary Furtado, Mrs. Miguel Brito, Mrs. Mary Lawrence and Anthony DeCosta. Each child attending received a gift.

At the Center School a committee from the Parent-Teachers Club entertained pupils from Grades 4 through 6. Prizes for costumes went

HARBOR BEACH ASSOCIATION ENJOY BANQUET

Over 160 members and friends of the Harbor Beach Improvement Association enjoyed a full course turkey dinner at Gaudette's Pavilion in Acushnet on Sunday, October 30.

Entertainment after the dinner was provided by the Stella Pifko School of Dancing of New Bedford, and also by the Harbor Beach Barber Shop Quartette, comprised of the following Messrs: Hebert, Johnson, Thompson, Dahill, Chamberlain and Cederholm with Mrs. Mae Lynch at the piano.

The committee in charge of the affair was comprised of Mrs. Hebert, chairman, Mrs. Belanger, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Fortin and Miss Helen Dahill.

We are very happy about these pictures showing Mr. and Mrs. Roy Geggatt and their son, Thomas William, reading the August square dance Presto in their home at Kafr-El-Dawar, Egypt. We quite often hear about people enjoying our paper far from home and we send many papers to subscribers in distant parts of the United States, but it is seldom that we actually see the people. The Presto is fun to put together because it's an account of the daily life of our towns and the people who live here. We get a lot of satisfaction in thinking that our paper is one link between the United States and these friends in Egypt.

Mr. Geggatt is a technical engineer for Von Kohorn Ltd., rayon manufacturers, in Cairo, Egypt, who also have an office in New York.

Mr. Geggatt is the brother of Mrs. George Bettencourt of Rochester.

NINE BROWNIES BECOME SCOUTS

Nine Brownies received their wings and became Girl Scouts at a flyup in the Mattapoisett Town Hall. Brownies welcomed by Scout leaders Mrs. George Avila and Mrs. Oscar St Jacques of the Morning Glory Troop and Mrs. Albert N. Heuberger and Mrs. Harry G. Erhard of the Cardinal Troop were Kathleen Cobb, Judith Dexter, Penelope Field, Deborah Nash, Susan Wordell, Brenda Perry, Judith Young, Kerry Monahan and Carol Hyland.

Mrs. Russell S. Sherman, who has resigned as Brownie leader, received a 20-year numeral and a Thank You badge from the troop. Mrs. Sherman will now be a member of the troop committee and her place as a leader will be taken by Mrs. Allen Sherman.

A gold Girl Scout pin and a 10-year numeral was received by Mrs. Denman Morgan, Brownie leader, who also received a gift from the Brownies who flew up.

New Brownies invested were Darby Locke,
